

Australian Government
Department of Immigration and Citizenship

Jackie Wilson biographical details

Jackie Wilson is the Deputy Secretary of the Business Services Group.

From November 2008 to January 2010, Jackie was the First Assistant Secretary, Community and Detention Services Division, responsible for the overall management of immigration detention operations in Australia.

She has several years' experience in program and policy areas covering health, disability, community services, education, employment, budget, finance, Indigenous and immigration issues.

Jackie has significant broader experience across the public service having served as an acting deputy secretary in the Department of Finance and Deregulation.

She also worked in senior management at the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet and the Department of Families, Housing, Community Services and Indigenous Affairs.

Jackie has a degree in science from the Australian National University majoring in statistics, mathematics and psychology.

Jackie was born in Colombo, Sri Lanka. She is married with two children.

Canberra

April 2011