

Temporary skilled visa options for graduates

There are 2 temporary visa options offered under the General Skilled Migration (GSM) Programme for recent graduates.

These are:

- Skilled – Graduate (subclass 485); and
- Skilled – Recognised Graduate (subclass 476).

Valid for 18 months, these visas allow the holder to live and work in Australia and provide a pathway to permanent residence.

Who can apply?

Skilled – Graduate visa

The onshore Skilled – Graduate visa (subclass 485) is a temporary visa for overseas students in Australia unable to meet the requirements for a permanent or provisional GSM visa. The visa will enable former overseas students to complete a post-graduate professional year, gain skilled work experience or improve their English skills. To be eligible, you need to have recently completed an Australian degree, diploma or trade qualification as a result of at least 2 years study. There is no points test for this visa.

Skilled – Recognised Graduate visa

The offshore Skilled – Recognised Graduate visa (subclass 476) is a temporary visa for people who have graduated in the last 24 months from:

- a course in a specified discipline;
- at a 'recognised' educational institution.

The current list of courses and universities is available from the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (the department) website www.immi.gov.au/skilled/

There is no points test for these visas.

What requirements must you meet?

Skilled Graduate visa

To apply for this visa you must:

- hold an eligible student visa¹ or have held an eligible student visa in the last 6 months;
- be under 45 years of age when your application is lodged;
- nominate an occupation worth 50 or 60 points on the Skilled Occupations List (SOL) that is closely related to your skills and qualifications;
- have applied to have your skills assessed for your nominated occupation;
- have met the 2 year study requirement in the last 6 months; and
- have 'competent' English OR 'vocational' English if you nominated a trade occupation.

To meet the 2 year study requirement, you must have completed one or more degree, diploma or trade qualifications awarded by an Australian educational institution as a result of a course or courses:

- that are registered on the Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS);
- that involved a total of at least 2 academic years study in Australia that was completed in no less than 16 calendar months; and
- for which all study undertaken was in English.

Any study used to meet the 2 year study requirement must be closely related to your nominated occupation and undertaken on a visa that allows you to study in Australia.

Skilled – Recognised Graduate visa

To apply for this visa you must:

- be 30 years of age or under when your application is lodged;
- have completed a degree in a specified discipline at a recognised educational institution; and
- have competent English.

Further information on these visa categories is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/skilled/

All applicants must also satisfy the public interest criteria that they are in good health and of good character.

Pathway to permanent residence

Permanent GSM visas

As a Skilled – Graduate or Skilled – Recognised Graduate visa holder you can lodge an application for a GSM permanent visa at any time during the 18 months of your visa but you will need to be able to meet the requirements for lodging a valid application.

The visas you can apply for are:

- Skilled – Independent (subclass 885);
- Skilled – Sponsored (subclass 886).

Both these visas are points-tested. To be granted a visa, the basic requirements are that:

- you have nominated a 50 or 60 point occupation that is on the SOL;
- you have had your skills assessed by the relevant assessing authority as suitable for working in your nominated occupation;
- the study you used to qualify for your temporary visa must be closely related to your nominated occupation;
- you have 'competent' English or 'vocational' English if you have nominated a trade occupation; and
- you meet the pass mark under the points test.

If you are applying for a Skilled – Sponsored visa you will also need to be nominated by a state/territory or sponsored by an eligible Australian relative.

Employer Sponsored visas

Graduate and Recognised Graduate visa holders with the support of an Australian employer may also apply for a permanent Employer Sponsored visa. See www.immi.gov.au/skilled/ for more information.

Unable to meet permanent GSM visa requirements?

Provisional GSM visas

To be granted this visa, the basic requirements are that:

- you have nominated a 50 or 60 point occupation that is on the SOL;
- you have had your skills assessed by the relevant assessing authority as suitable for working in your nominated occupation;
- the study you used to qualify for your temporary visa must be closely related to your nominated occupation;
- either:
 - you have 'competent' English; or
 - you have nominated a trade occupation and have 'vocational' English; or
 - you have applied for a Skilled – Regional Sponsored visa, have paid a fee to attend English language tuition in a participating state or territory and have 'concessional competent' English; and
- you have been:
 - nominated by a state or territory; or
 - sponsored by an eligible Australian relative living in a designated area.
