

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete your application. Once you have completed your application we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

Who should use this form?

Use this form if you are outside Australia, and you are applying for a SPONSORED FAMILY VISITOR VISA to visit relatives in Australia, and you have a relative who is eligible and willing to sponsor you.

You will need to complete and sign this form and send it back to your sponsor with all supporting documentation. Your sponsor will need to lodge it in Australia with form 1149 Application for sponsorship for sponsored family visitors.

A Sponsored Family Visitor visa will generally allow you to stay in Australia for a period of up to 3 months. In certain circumstances the period may be longer, up to 12 months. If granted, the visa will only allow you to travel to Australia for a single visit. If you:

- do not have an eligible relative who can sponsor you under this visa class, or if you want a Tourist visa which allows multiple entry, you should use form 48R Application for general tourists to visit Australia for tourism or other recreational activities.
- intend visiting Australia for medical treatment you should use form 48ME Application to visit Australia for medical treatment (Class UB Medical Treatment).
- intend to study in Australia for more than 3 months you should apply for a student visa. Please contact the nearest Australian overseas mission for information on student visa applications, including the correct application form.
- intend visiting Australia for a short business trip you should use form 456 Application for a Business (Short Stay) visa (for a stay of up to 3 months).

You must complete all questions in all sections. Failure to answer any question completely and accurately may result in the application being refused, or the visa may be cancelled at a later date.

More detailed information is available from the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (the department) website www.immi.gov.au/visitors/

Integrity of application

The department is committed to maintaining the integrity of the visa and citizenship programs. Please be aware that if you provide us with fraudulent documents or claims, this may result in processing delays and possibly your application being refused.

Conditions for a Sponsored Family Visitor visa to Australia

Sponsored Family visitors to Australia must be willing and able to abide by the conditions listed below while in Australia. If you are unwilling or unable to abide by these conditions, you should not apply for this visa. If you do not abide by these conditions, your visa may be cancelled and you and your sponsor will be subject to other penalties.

8101 – You must not work in Australia.

8201 – While in Australia you must not engage, for more than 3 months, in any studies or training.

8205 – Where this condition applies, and you intend to study for longer than 4 weeks, you are required to pass a chest x-ray examination before you are able to commence study.

8503 – No Further Stay¹.

8531 – You must not remain in Australia after the end of the period of stay permitted by your initial Sponsored Family Visitor visa.

Further information regarding condition 8503

The effect of the 8503 ‘No Further Stay’ condition is that it will not be possible for you to apply to remain in Australia beyond the authorised period of stay shown on your visa label or on the letter advising you of the grant of your visa. It is particularly important, if the purpose of your visit to Australia is to attend a specific event, that you organise your travel so that you attend this event within your authorised period of stay, as you will not be able to extend your period of stay in Australia.

Sponsor

A Sponsored Family visitor must have an eligible sponsor who will guarantee their stay and lawful departure from Australia and who may be requested to arrange for the lodgement of a security bond.

To avoid your sponsor incurring penalties, you MUST leave Australia before the expiry of your Sponsored Family Visitor visa.

If for ANY reason you do not depart before your Sponsored Family Visitor visa expires, or if you breach any of the conditions on your Sponsored Family Visitor visa, penalties will be imposed upon your sponsor. Any security bond lodged to support your Sponsored Family Visitor visa application will normally be forfeited.

If you request a waiver of the 8503 ‘No Further Stay’ condition and this results in your remaining in Australia after your Sponsored Family Visitor visa expires, you will still be taken to have breached the 8531 ‘Must leave before visa expiry’ condition, and the penalties will be imposed upon your sponsor, even if the 8503 is waived and a further visa is granted. Any security bond lodged to support your Sponsored Family Visitor visa application will normally be forfeited.

Who can be a sponsor?

In all cases, your sponsor must be an Australian citizen or permanent resident aged 18 years or over and settled in Australia for a reasonable period (usually 2 years).

Your sponsor must be one of the following:

- a relative (parent, child, partner, brother, sister, grandparent, grandchild, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, or 'step' equivalent of any of these); or
- a member of an Australian parliament (Commonwealth, state or territory); or
- an authorised person representing a Commonwealth, state or territory government department or instrumentality; or
- a local government mayor.

Your sponsor can only sponsor one person or one 'family unit' at a time. A 'family unit' normally includes the head of the family, partner, and dependent children of the head of the family. Other relatives may be included in the 'family unit' if they can provide evidence that they are fully dependent on the head of the family. If you and the other members of your family unit are applying for Sponsored Family Visitor visas with the same sponsor, your sponsor MUST lodge all application forms, and the sponsorship form 1149

Application for sponsorship for sponsored family visitors in Australia at the same time.

Only one passport holder can apply on a form. You can include in your application any children under 18 years of age who are listed in your passport and who will be travelling with you. If another adult is included in your passport, they need to complete a separate application form.

'Partner' means your spouse or de facto partner (including same-sex partners).

Who cannot be a sponsor?

There are no provisions for fiancé(e)s, cousins, friends, in-laws or New Zealand citizens to sponsor.

If your sponsor has already provided a sponsorship for another relative, and that other relative has been granted a Sponsored Family Visitor visa, and that visa is still in effect, then your sponsor will not be eligible to sponsor you until the other relative has departed Australia and complied with all visa conditions, or until their visa has expired.

If your sponsor has already provided a sponsorship for another relative, and that other relative has breached a condition of that visa, for example they did not depart Australia before the expiry of their Sponsored Family Visitor visa, then your sponsor will not be eligible to provide further sponsorships in this visa class for a period of 5 years. The only exception is where the visa condition that the other relative breached was condition 8531 (must leave before visa expiry) and your sponsor is able to satisfy the department that they breached this condition due to circumstances that:

- were beyond the visa holder's control; and
- arose after their arrival in Australia.

If your sponsor is found to be not eligible after your visa application has been lodged, then your application will normally be refused, on the basis that the sponsorship cannot be approved.

Security bond

Your sponsor may be asked to arrange for the lodgement of a security bond in support of your Sponsored Family Visitor visa application. The amount of the security bond is determined on a case by case basis by the delegated overseas officer and is generally between AUD5,000 and AUD15,000 per person.

It should be noted, however, under the Migration Act 1958 the decision to request a security bond is at the discretion of the delegated officer. Therefore, depending on the circumstances of the individual case, the delegated officer may ask for a security bond of any amount that they see as appropriate. The purpose of the security bond is to give the decision-maker assessing your application additional assurance that you will comply with all visa conditions and that you will leave Australia on or before the expiry of your Sponsored Family Visitor visa.

If the delegated officer determines that a security bond needs to be lodged in support of your application, your sponsor will be sent details of how and where to lodge the security bond. The time limit for lodging the security bond is 35 days. Once the bond has been lodged, the decision-maker will be notified, and will be able to finalise the processing of your application.

If a security bond is requested and not lodged, your application will normally be refused.

If a security bond is lodged, and you are granted a Sponsored Family Visitor visa, and you breach any visa conditions, in particular if you do not leave Australia before the expiry of your Sponsored Family Visitor visa, normally the security bond will be forfeited.

Visa Application Charge

An application charge must accompany each application.

- The application cannot be processed until this charge has been received.
- The fee is generally not refundable if a visa is not granted.

Fees may be subject to adjustment at any time. Visa Application Charges may be subject to adjustment on 1 July each year. This may increase the cost of a visa.

To check the Visa Application Charge, see form 990i Charges available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/990i.htm or check with the nearest office of the department.

Method of payment

In Australia

To make a payment, please pay by credit card, debit card, bank cheque or money order made payable to the Department of Immigration and Citizenship. Debit card and credit card are the preferred methods of payment.

Outside Australia

Before making a payment outside Australia, please check with the Australian Government office where you intend to lodge your application as to what methods of payment and currencies they can accept and to whom the payment should be made payable.

Fees may be subject to adjustment at any time. Visa Application Charges may be subject to adjustment on 1 July each year. This may increase the cost of a visa.

How to apply

- All Sponsored Family Visitor visa applications must be lodged at an office of the department in Australia.
- Complete and sign application form 48S. False or misleading information may lead to refusal or cancellation of your visa, or penalties while in Australia. You may arrange for another person to help you complete the application form, but you must sign it. If you have been assisted in completing the application form, you should only sign the declaration(s) if the information in it is true and correct.
- You must tell the department where you intend to live while your application is being dealt with. Failure to give your residential address will result in this application being invalid. A post office box address will not be accepted as your residential address.
- Send the completed and signed form(s) for you and your family members included in the sponsorship and all supporting documentation, including a certified copy of each applicant's passport, to your sponsor in Australia. Your sponsor must then lodge all applications, together with a completed form 1149 Application for sponsorship for sponsored family visitors at a regional office of the department in Australia. Some offices may require an appointment to be made prior to lodgement. The following offices of the department process Sponsored Family Visitor visa applications:
 - ACT Regional;
 - Adelaide;
 - Brisbane;
 - Dandenong (Victoria);
 - Darwin;
 - Hobart;
 - Perth; and
 - Sydney CBD.
- The decision-maker may require you to undergo medical or x-ray examinations.
- If the decision-maker determines that a security bond is required, your sponsor will be contacted and will be given details of how to lodge the security bond.
- If a visa is granted, your sponsor will be advised of the arrangements for a visa label to be placed in your passport.
- Carefully check the details and conditions on your visa label or on the letter advising you of the grant of your visa.

Health insurance

Medical treatment in Australia can be very expensive. It is recommended that you take out health insurance for you and your family for the period of stay in Australia. You will not be covered by Australia's national health scheme, unless there is a reciprocal health care agreement between Australia and your country of residence (or in certain circumstances your country of residence and citizenship). For more information, see www.medicareaustralia.gov.au/yourhealth/going_overseas

If you are 75 years of age or over

In order to satisfy the financial requirement for these visas, you may be asked to provide evidence with your application that you have health insurance to cover your stay in Australia. More information about Australian private health insurance is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/visitors/

Vaccinations

If it is your intention to enrol your child in an Australian school or childcare centre (creche or preschool) during your visit to Australia, you are strongly encouraged to carry certification of your child's vaccination status.

Vaccination is recommended against polio, tetanus, measles, mumps, rubella, diphtheria, pertussis (whooping cough), Haemophilus influenzae hypo (Hib), and Hepatitis B.

Certification may be sought at time of enrolment.

Note: Vaccination against rubella is also recommended for women of child bearing age.

Consent to communicate electronically

The department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or e-mail will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application the department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with. If you agree to the department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the department over the internet or by other electronic means.

Options for receiving written communications

You may authorise another person to receive all communications, both written and electronic, about your application with the department. You will be taken to have received any documents sent to that person as if they had been sent to you.

To do this you will need to complete Question 46 Options for receiving written communications and form 956 Appointment of a migration agent or exempt agent or other authorised recipient. For an explanation of what a migration agent or exempt agent or authorised recipient can do please read the sections below.

To change or end the appointment of your migration agent or exempt agent or authorised recipient you must promptly advise the department in writing. You can do this by using form 956 Appointment of a migration agent or exempt agent or other authorised recipient.

Authorised recipient information

An authorised recipient is someone you appoint to receive written communications about your application with the department.

All written communication about your application will be sent to your authorised recipient, unless you indicate that you wish to have health and/or character information sent directly to you.

The department will communicate with the most recently appointed authorised recipient as you may only appoint one authorised recipient at any time for a particular application.

Authorisation of a migration agent to act on behalf of the sponsor

A migration agent is someone who can:

- advise you on visas and sponsorships;
- tell you the documents you need to submit with your sponsorship application;
- help you fill in the sponsorship application and submit it;
- receive written communications about your sponsorship application with the department; and
- discuss your sponsorship application with the department.

You are not required to use a migration agent. However, if you use a migration agent, the department encourages you to use a registered migration agent. Registered agents are bound by the Migration Agents Code of Conduct, which requires them to act professionally in their clients' lawful best interests.

Immigration assistance

A person gives immigration assistance to you if he or she uses, or claims to use, his or her knowledge or experience in migration procedure to assist you with your visa application, request for ministerial intervention, cancellation review application, sponsorship or nomination.

In Australia a person may only lawfully give immigration assistance if he or she is a registered migration agent or is exempt from being registered. Only registered migration agents may receive a fee or reward for providing immigration assistance.

If an unregistered person in Australia, who is not exempt from registration, gives you immigration assistance they are committing a criminal offence and may be prosecuted.

Sponsors of applicants for Sponsored Family Visitor visas are exempt from the requirements to be registered as a migration agent in order to assist applicants in relation to Sponsored Family Visitor visas.

Migration agents in Australia

Migration agents in Australia must be registered with the Office of the Migration Agents Registration Authority (Office of the MARA) unless they are exempt from registration.

Migration agents outside Australia

Migration agents who operate outside Australia do not have to be registered. The department may give some overseas agents an ID number. This number does not mean that they are registered.

Note: Some Australian registered migration agents operate overseas.

Exempt agents

The following people do not have to be a registered migration agent in order to provide immigration assistance, but they must not charge a fee for their service:

- a close family member (spouse, de facto partner, child, parent, brother or sister);
- a sponsor or nominator for this visa application;
- a member of parliament or their staff;
- an official whose duties include providing immigration assistance (eg. a Legal Aid provider);
- a member of a diplomatic mission, consular post or international organisation.

Further information on migration agents

Information on migration agents, including a list of registered migration agents, is available on the Office of the MARA website www.themara.com.au

You can also access information about migration agents on the department's website www.immi.gov.au

About the information you give

The department is authorised to collect information provided on this form under Part 2 of the Migration Act 1958 'Control of Arrival and Presence of Non-Citizens'. The information provided will be used by the department for assessing your eligibility for a visa to travel, enter and remain in Australia and for other purposes relating to the administration of the Migration Act, for example, to assist migrants with settling in Australia, to monitor the conduct of migration agents, or for ensuring compliance with the Migration Act.

The information provided might also be disclosed to agencies who are authorised to receive information relating to adoption, border control, business skills, citizenship, education, health assessment, health insurance, health services, law enforcement, payment of pensions and benefits, taxation, superannuation, review of decisions and regulation of migration agents.

Relevant information about you will be disclosed to federal, state and territory police to assist in your location and possible detention in the event that you become an unlawful non-citizen. You will become an unlawful non-citizen if your visa ceases (by cancellation for breach of visa condition for example) or expires and you do not hold another visa authorising you to remain in Australia.

If your application for a visitor visa has also been supported by an Australian Member of Parliament or a Community Leader based in Australia, information on the outcome of your application and of your compliance with visa conditions, if your visa is granted, may be provided to the Member of Parliament or the Community Leader.

The collection, access, storage, use and disclosure by the department of the information you provide in this form is governed by the Privacy Act 1988 and, in particular, by the 11 Information Privacy Principles. The information form 993i Safeguarding your personal information, available from the department's offices, gives details of agencies to which your personal information might be disclosed. Form 993i is also available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/

The department is authorised under the Migration Act 1958, in certain circumstances, to collect a range of personal identifiers including a facial image, fingerprints and a signature from non-citizens, including from visa applicants. The department requires personal identifiers to assist in assessing your identity. The department is authorised to disclose your personal identifiers and information relating to your name and other relevant biographical data to a number of agencies including law enforcement and health agencies and to other agencies who may need to check your identity with this department. Where the department obtains personal identifiers they will become part of your official record with the department.

The department is involved in international information exchanges with a number of other countries. These exchanges include the sharing of personal identifiers, including a facial image and fingerprint data collected by immigration agencies such as this department. If, as a result of this sharing between countries, there is a match with your personal identifiers, the department will disclose your biographic data and immigration history to the other agency. The purpose of such disclosure would be to determine if you are presenting to the department and the other agency under the same identity and making similar claims.

For more detailed information you should read information form 1243i Your personal identifying information, which is available from the department's website www.immi.gov.au/allforms/ or from any office of the department or Australian mission overseas.

Under the Migration Act 1958, decision-makers are not obliged to seek additional information from the applicant before making a decision on a visa application. It is therefore in the applicant's best interest to submit the following documentation with their application:

- evidence of your medical/travel insurance (if held);

- if required, authorisation for children to travel with you (refer to the section on the form 'Children included' for details).

All visitors to Australia must be able to demonstrate they have adequate funds to cover all costs associated with their visit. Providing evidence of funds will help expedite the processing of a visitor visa application. Examples may include showing personal bank statements showing a financial history, pay slips, audited accounts, taxation records or details of funds that visitors will be taking with them or funds that are available to them.
