

New visa application lodgement process—Nauru

Lodging visa applications from 25 November 2011

From 25 November, all visa and citizenship lodgements in Nauru, regardless of nationality, may be lodged at the Australian Visa Application Centre (AVAC) in Aiwo District.

Address: TT Services (NZ) Limited
Civic Centre (Ground Level)
Aiwo District, Nauru
P O Box 82, Nauru

The AVAC will be open from 8.30 am— 4.30 pm Monday to Friday.

Phone: 674 558 6974

8.30 am— 4.30 pm Monday to Friday

Email: ttsnauru@ttepl.com

AVAC services include: pre-lodgement enquiries; visa lodgement; application tracking and return of decisions/passports.

A service fee of AUD22 per application applies. Full Service fees details are available on the TT Services website.

See: www.ttsaustralia.com/OurServiceFee.aspx

Clients from Nauru can post or courier their applications to the Australian High Commission in Suva. Please be aware that postal delivery can take up to four weeks to reach the High Commission.

The Australian High Commission, Nauru ceased receiving client enquiries and visa and citizenship applications from 25 November 2011. All applications will continue to be processed at the Australian High Commission in Suva.

For more information regarding this new arrangement or for application forms and checklists, please visit the official TT Services or Australian High Commission websites.

See:

www.ttsaustralia.com

www.fiji.embassy.gov.au