

Australian Government

Department of Immigration and Citizenship

Learn English with the AMEP

“I met many people from different countries and some have become my very good friends. I learnt how to approach companies and how to contact the right person. It was a great experience.” Gulshan Kumar, Synthetic Chemist.

www.immi.gov.au/amep

131 881

people our business

Australian Government

Department of Immigration and Citizenship

Learn English with the AMEP

“We came from Rwanda with no English at all. Learning a new language was not easy, but the teachers were so helpful and when you fix yourself an objective, nothing is impossible. Finally our dreams came true and we both have permanent jobs!” Faina Iligoga and Aubert Ruzigandekwe.

www.immi.gov.au/amep

131 881

people our business

Australian Government

Department of Immigration and Citizenship

Learn English with the AMEP

“English classes have helped me a lot. When I finished, I decided to run my own business. Now we have two different businesses, one for my wife and one for me.” Hector Moreno, Business Owner.

www.immi.gov.au/amep

131 881

people our business

Australian Government

Department of Immigration and Citizenship

Learn English with the AMEP

“To me, English classes were not just a place where I could improve my English but also where I could make new friends. Now I am working at one of the biggest job networking companies in Australia helping people to get employment. My motto is: never give up!” Cecily Thevenaz-Tsui, Employment Advisor.

www.immi.gov.au/amep

131 881

people our business

Australian Government

Department of Immigration and Citizenship

Learn English with the AMEP

“We came from many places to make a home and work in Australia. Learning a new language was hard and we are proud to have succeeded. Now we help others to learn English and to settle in Australia.” AMEP teaching, support and childcare staff.

www.immi.gov.au/amep

131 881