1. Valid application:

In order to lodge a valid application at the Australian High Commission Nairobi, Kenya the following items must be submitted:

- Completed Forms: 47SP “Application for migration to Australia by a partner” and 40SP “Sponsorship for a partner to migrate to Australia”. These forms can be downloaded free of charge from the website: www.immi.gov.au. Or alternatively you may purchase a “Partner Migration” pack for USD5.00 or (KES600.00) from the Australian High Commission Nairobi.
- Visa application charge (VAC): The current VAC is USD1280.00 or (KES105,100) and is subject to change without prior notice.

Please note that the acceptable method of payment is by cash in US Dollars or Kenyan Shillings only. We will also accept US Dollars payments by International bank draft made payable to Australian High Commission. The bank draft must be drawn on a New York bank account. Personal Cheques and credit cards are NOT acceptable. THE APPLICATION FEE IS NON-REFUNDABLE.

Payment in Australia is only accepted by credit card, debit card or by bank cheque or money order made payable to the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC). The fee can be paid at any DIAC office within Australia and the pink copy of the receipt should be forwarded for attachment to the application Forms 47SP and 40SP.

2. Identification:

You must provide the following:

- A current passport or travel document
- Four (4) recent passport-size photographs for each applicant included in the application (Applicants’ full names must be written at the back of each photograph) and two (2) passport-size photographs of your sponsor
- Birth certificate showing both parents’ names for each applicant
- Evidence of any name changes (for example, deed poll, marriage certificates or divorce certificates)
- If you have served in the armed forces of any country, certified copies of your military service record or discharge papers

Please note that certified copies of the original documents are acceptable at lodgement however you may be required to produce the original documents at a later stage.

3. Health and character requirements:

- Health checks – all applicants and their dependants whether migrating or not to Australia are required to undergo health checks that are undertaken by panel doctors. Separate advice will be given upon receipt of your application to undergo medical examinations including the details of the relevant panel doctor(s) in your locality.
- Character checks – all applicants must be of good character and satisfy the character test. As part of having to satisfy the character test, you must provide police checks for yourself and each of your dependants whether migrating or not who are aged 17 years or over. You must provide the department with originals of police checks. Separate advice will be given upon receipt of your application to request police checks including instructions as appropriate. Instructions and country information required to request police checks are contained in Form 47P Character requirements penal clearance certificates, which is available on the department's website: www.immi.gov.au/allforms/index.htm
- Form required: Form 80 "Personal Particulars for Character Assessment".

4. Evidence of relationship:

All applicants must provide evidence of the relationship. This may include but is not limited to:

- Original Marriage Certificate.
