

Revoking the Critical Skills List

Q 1 What will be the role of the Critical Skills List when the new Skilled Occupation List is introduced?

The Critical Skills List (CSL) will be revoked when the new Skilled Occupation List (SOL) comes into place in mid-2010. The CSL was an interim administrative measure adopted while the Migration Occupation in Demand List (MODL) review was being undertaken, to ensure skilled migration outcomes were driven by the demands of the labour market.

Q 2 My nominated occupation is currently on the CSL. Will I continue to receive priority processing?

Yes, priority processing arrangements for applications for permanent skilled migration will continue until they are reviewed in mid-2010. More information on the new arrangements will be provided closer to this time on www.immi.gov.au
